I. So, I'd like to talk about my favorite foods, let's start. For me I have too many favorite foods, and now it's too difficult to choose only three or four. OK, actually I usually eat pasta or rice, cause I really like it. My mom always cooks it delicious and not only me all the members in our family love it. Probably, you have a question, why do I like it so much? The answer is easy, cause my mom cooks it (especially than) more delicious and especially than other places like in restaurants or cafes. She always adds some meats and makes a special sauce for these ~~past~~ foods. So, I told you the foods, which I usually have at home, and now let's talk about the foods which I usually eat when I go out. When I go out with my friends or family, we always go to the our favorite restaurant and eat. By the way, we also try to go out in the evenings and have a dinner. So let's go back to my favorite foods when I go to ~~my~~ restaurant. Actually I really like Korean cuisine, cause the flavour of their foods are so incredible, I can say it's perfect. Most of all, (like order) I like to order the foods which called "Ramen", "kimbab" and cheese roll. I really recommended these foods for you. So, we talked about my favorite foods at home and when I go out, now let's talk about ingredients which you have to use, if you want to cook these foods. You need some meats and also you should try to your best when you make a sauce for your food, you need a lot of vegetables and salt. For Korean foods, you also need vegetables, but for Ramen you need noodles and egg. But for cheese roll you need of course cheese and rice also the non. I think most of people can cook it, if you try a lot. Maybe now you have a question Are they healthy or not? Of course no. Because they contains salt, cheese, sauces and even more, so if you (have a) don't want to lose your perfect body, you shouldn't eat it too much.
